Welles-Turner Library Summer Reading Program T-Shirt Design Contest

Calling all teen artists!

The Welles-Turner Memorial Library is looking for an out of this world design for this year's Summer Reading Program t-shirt! Starting February 19th, we will be accepting submissions for artwork that will appear on our teen and adult shirts – shirts that are worn by hundreds of people in and around Glastonbury. This is your chance to show the universe how creative you are.

Submission Guidelines

- Participation is open to teens in grades 7-12. Each participant is allowed to submit up to 3 entries. Each entry must be submitted with a completed entry form. Forms are available on our library website and at the Reference Desk.
- Designs must be black-on-white line drawings and include one of the following slogans:
 - "A Universe of Stories"
 - "Take Me to Your Reader"
 - "To the Library...and Beyond!"
- Designs must be original artwork, appropriate for all ages, and fit on an 8.5" x 11" piece of paper.
- Entries must be received by 5:00pm on March 15th. They can be dropped off at the library Reference Desk or sent via email to meghan.withers-tong@glastonbury-ct.gov
- The winning design will be chosen by library staff on Friday, March 22nd. The winner will then be notified, and the design will be unveiled to the public at the start of the Summer Reading Program in June.
- The winning design will be selected by the staff at Welles-Turner Memorial Library. The Library reserves the right to not select a winner, if no suitable entries are received.
