

READ MORE IN 2024!

A NEW YEAR'S READING CHALLENGE FOR KIDS & FAMILIES

Choose a Reading Resolution below. Read the book yourself or listen to someone read aloud. Once you are finished draw an X on the square. When you have a row of 5 Xs (horizontal, vertical or diagonal) bring it to the Children's Department for a chance to win a prize. Entries must be submitted by March 8th.

A book that you read aloud to your pet or favorite stuffed animal

A book that was published the year you were born

A book your parents read as a child

A book by an author whose last name starts with any of the letters in WINTER

A joke book. Tell a joke to your family and friends.

A superhero book. Make up your own superhero!

A book in a genre that is new to you

A book about kindness

A biography or a book based on a true story

A book related to your favorite subject in school

The first book in a series

A book recommended by a friend or teacher

A book written by a local author

A book featuring a country or region you wish to visit

A non-fiction book about a new topic

A play or funny short story. Act out your favorite scene.

A literary award winner, like the Newbery or Caldecott Medal.

A book with a blue cover

A book with no words, just pictures

A spooky, but not-too-scary book

A book to teach you a new skill, like cooking or Chess

A novel in verse or a book of poetry

Draw a picture or take a "shelfie" with your book

A book that became a movie