Please note:

 You must currently live in Connecticut and have a current library card to submit an item for consideration. **

Patrons wishing to contribute books to our Local Author Shelf must meet the following criteria:

- Fiction and Non-Fiction Prose: The work must be over 100 bound sheets of paper.
- Children's books must be bound and a minimum of 32 pages.
- Poetry: The work must be over 45 bound sheets of paper.
- Works with CDs or DVDs will not be accepted.
- The work's binding must be strong enough to withstand at least 20 readings/circulations. Books will be removed from the collection and discarded when bindings give out. Authors can search the online catalog at any time to determine whether their works are still in the collection.

Each contributed book must be accompanied by a Submission Form with the following information completed:

- full legal name of author;
- full title – from the book title page, not the cover
- date of publication (no more than 3 years old)
- your current library card number

For more information: https://www.wtmlib.info/using-library/library_policies.shtml

Note: Author Shelf donations are submitted to the Library Collections Dept. All submissions are subject to the library's collection policy. Upon donation, items become library property, and will be cataloged, shelved, and discarded at the library's discretion.

Welles Turner MEMORIAL LIBRARY

Local Author Shelf Submission Form

Connecticut residents drop off your new book with this form inside.

If you would like your book to be available on The WTML Local Authors' Shelf, please return this completed sheet, along with your donated submission (one copy only), to the Welles-Turner Memorial Library Reference & Information Desk, 2407 Main Street.

* You must currently live in Connecticut and have a current library card to submit an item for consideration. *

All fields below are required:

Your full real name and current address (please print):

_____

_____

_____

Your Library Card #: _____

Full title of book (from cover page): _____

_____

Pub date (no more than 3 years old): _____

Your current phone # _____

Your email address (required – please print):

_____

I affirm that this book is primarily the author's original creative work and that any use of artificial intelligence was limited to an assistive role rather than the creation of substantial portions of its written or visual content.

Signature: _____

Please note:

 You must currently live in Connecticut and have a current library card to submit an item for consideration. **

Patrons wishing to contribute books to our Local Author Shelf must meet the following criteria:

- Fiction and Non-Fiction Prose: The work must be over 100 bound sheets of paper.
- Children's books must be bound and a minimum of 32 pages.
- Poetry: The work must be over 45 bound sheets of paper.
- Works with CDs or DVDs will not be accepted.
- The work's binding must be strong enough to withstand at least 20 readings/circulations. Books will be removed from the collection and discarded when bindings give out. Authors can search the online catalog at any time to determine whether their works are still in the collection.

Each contributed book must be accompanied by a Submission Form with the following information completed:

- full legal name of author;
- full title – from the book title page, not the cover
- date of publication (no more than 3 years old)
- your current library card number

For more information: https://www.wtmlib.info/using-library/library_policies.shtml

Note: Author Shelf donations are submitted to the Library Collections Dept. All submissions are subject to the library's collection policy. Upon donation, items become library property, and will be cataloged, shelved, and discarded at the library's discretion.

Welles Turner MEMORIAL LIBRARY

Local Author Shelf Submission Form

Connecticut residents drop off your new book with this form inside.

If you would like your book to be available on The WTML Local Authors' Shelf, please return this completed sheet, along with your donated submission (one copy only), to the Welles-Turner Memorial Library Reference & Information Desk, 2407 Main Street.

* You must currently live in Connecticut and have a current library card to submit an item for consideration. *

All fields below are required:

Your full real name and current address (please print):

_____

_____

_____

Your Library Card #: _____

Full title of book (from cover page): _____

_____

Pub date (no more than 3 years old): _____

Your current phone # _____

Your email address (required – please print):

_____

I affirm that this book is primarily the author's original creative work and that any use of artificial intelligence was limited to an assistive role rather than the creation of substantial portions of its written or visual content.

Signature: _____